

I would like to express my displeasure at the proposal to weaken Indiana's "no call" laws by allowing an exemption for "existing business relationships." I do not wish to open this avenue for business to contact me by phone. If I have an "existing business relationship" with a company and wish to contact them, I will initiate the contact. I hope you will reject the request of the Consumer Banker's Association to weaken this law.